

THE MVNU EXPERIENCE

CHOICES— You make them daily about every aspect of your life. Right choices make you feel good about who you are and how you live your life. The choices you make define who you are and are becoming.

As you think about the choice of a college education, we want you to know that at Mount Vernon Nazarene University you have choices of relevant and challenging majors that will open the doors to experience discovery and growth. Travel. Serve. Learn. In a real community of faith where professors give you personal attention and you know you're not a number; you're one of us. We'll show you how you can afford it too. It's all a matter of choice. Make the right one.

Our students become writers, artists, musicians, teachers, lawyers, broadcasters, and graphic designers, each with a specific set of skills learned in the classroom and through internships.

Competence and Christian service go hand-in-hand at MVNU.

The School of Arts and Humanities invites you to explore our undergraduate programs in art, communication, English, graphic design, history, modern languages, and music. It's all a matter of making the right choice.

The MVNU Experience

The Communication Department at Mount Vernon Nazarene University wants to help you fulfill your vision of putting your talents to work to serve Christ and others and to become a Christ-like leader for lifelong service.

COMMUNICATION PROGRAMS

Understanding the communication process helps you learn how to develop healthy, helping relationships with people in a variety of settings. With effective communication skills, you can become an agent of healing and change in a world that needs help dealing with conflicts and misunderstandings. At MVNU, we are committed to teaching communication concepts infused with the Christian values of truth, righteousness, and goodness, to enable you to enhance personal relationships, contribute to human society, and advance God's kingdom.

Our faculty will guide you in developing practical skills for organizational leadership applicable in a variety of areas, or for specific careers in the field of communication, such as broadcasting, drama, and journalism.

Coursework includes foundational learning in communication theory, public speaking, small group processes, and mass media, along with specialized classes in areas such as radio production, stagecraft, video production, acting, and rhetorical history. Communication majors may choose from the broadcasting, drama, journalism, or general programs.

Opportunities for participation in related activities abound, including WNZR 90.9 FM (the campus radio station), video projects, drama and musical productions, and involvement on the campus newspaper or yearbook staff. Internships provide a real-world experience to prepare you to take on a job after graduation or to go on to graduate school in communication or a related field.

A degree in Journalism is the right degree for you have an interest in:

- Publishing
- Journalism
- Graphic design
- Book/magazine editing
- Public relations
- Advertising/marketing

To gain hands-on experience, you may write and/or edit for The Lakeholm Viewer, the student newspaper, or work on the staff of Enerazan, MVNU's yearbook.
